Look a chance to not believes in you
You make me feel you love me
You need me too
Our love is saying it s dream come true
You are my sunshine and i love you
And we believe in love
And you believe in me
And my heart believes
Your promises are true
Promises unforgettable promises
Will you keep up to your promises
And be forever mine
Promises unforgettable promises
Will you keep up to your promises
And be forever mine
Promises
Nothing can keep us apart
You and i can ever not
I ll hold your heart breath next to mine
To be with you till the end of time
I ll be your s forever your s
Will you be forever ever mine
Promises unforgettable promises
Will you keep up to your promises
And be forever mine
